++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Very cold, with sunny spells. Brisk winds.

Today:
A cold start, and largely sunny, although cloudier towards the north coast where the odd snow shower cannot be ruled out. Cloud likely thickening a little through the day, but most parts dry. Remaining cold, particularly in the brisk wind. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tonight:
Another cold night with early cloud breaking and clear spells developing. Feeling especially cold in the strong winds. Staying dry. Icy patches possible. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Saturday:
Another cold day, and feeling especially raw in the strong winds. Early sunshine turning hazy for some later as cloud continues to thicken, especially across western parts. Staying dry throughout. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Windy, cold Sunday, before brief snow and sleet spread east, quickly turning to rain. Icy conditions possible, but soon thawing. Milder temperatures Monday and Tuesday, but also rain at times.
